ABOUT ME

My name is Ayoyinka Abolarin. I am an entrepreneur, wife and a mommy living in Lagos.

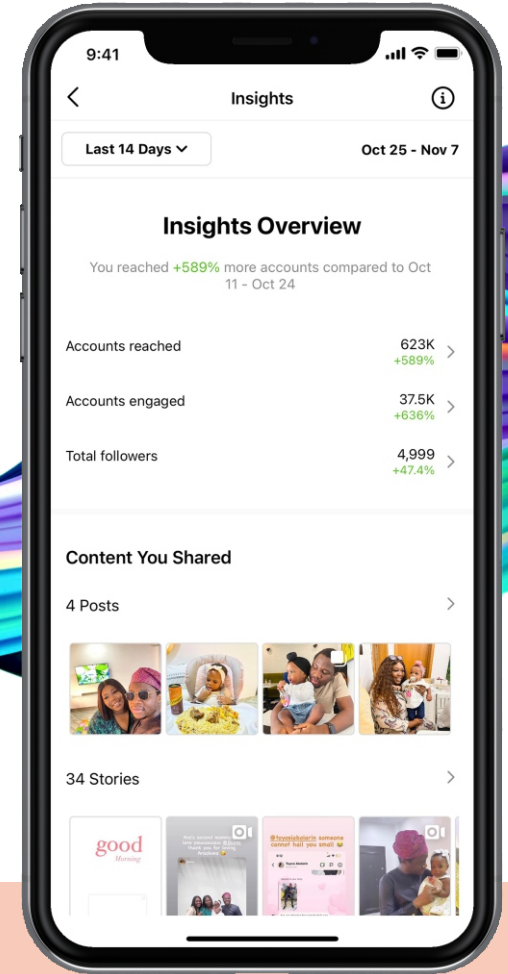

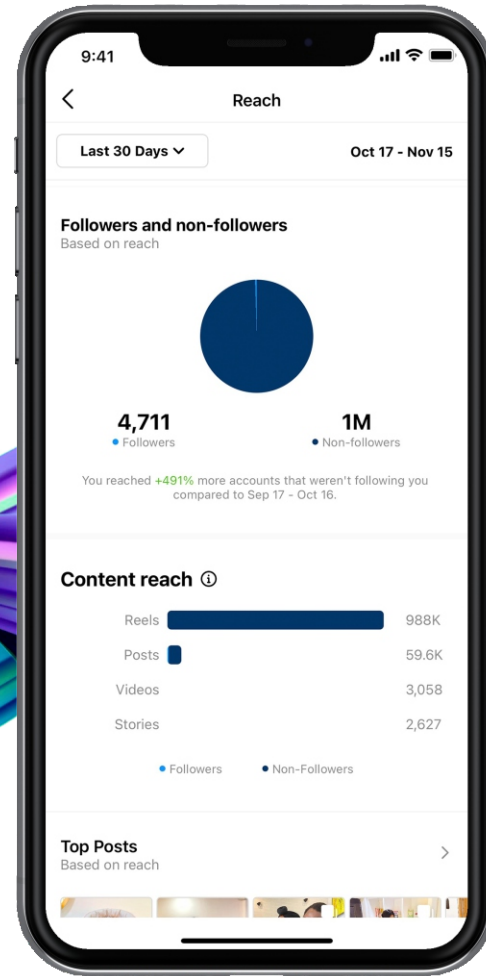

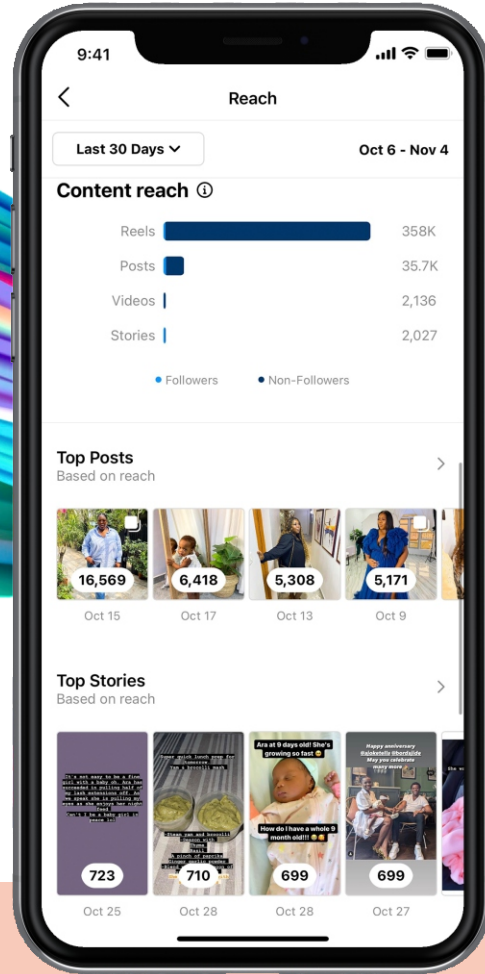

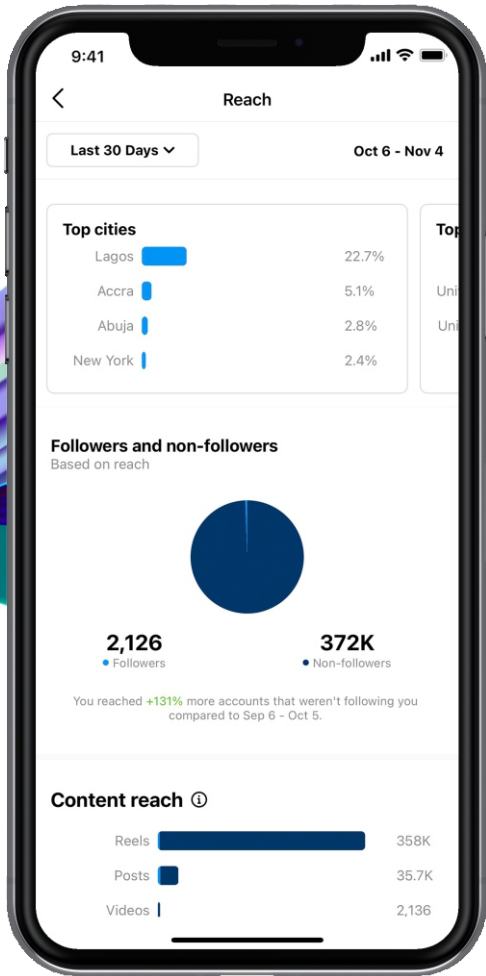

I started my page to demystify motherhood by sharing tips, my experiences and real life scenarios that come with this journey.

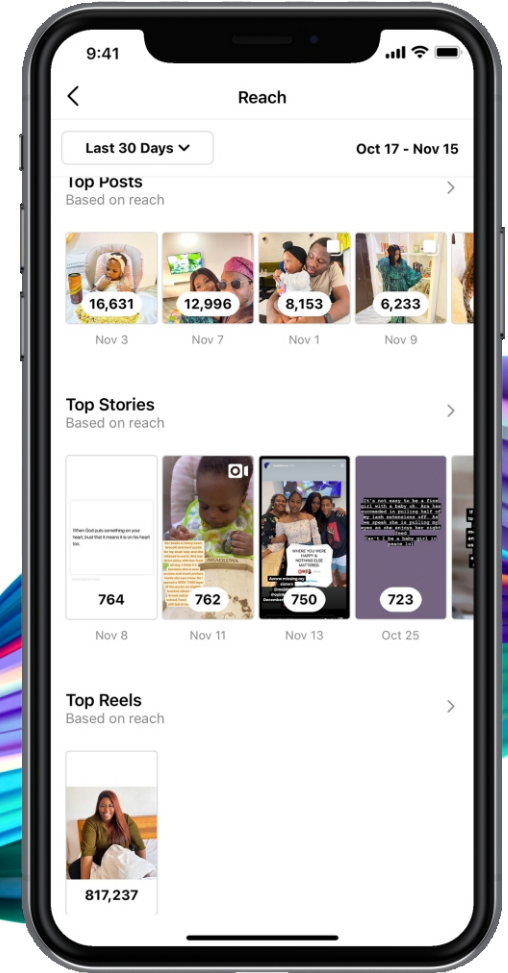

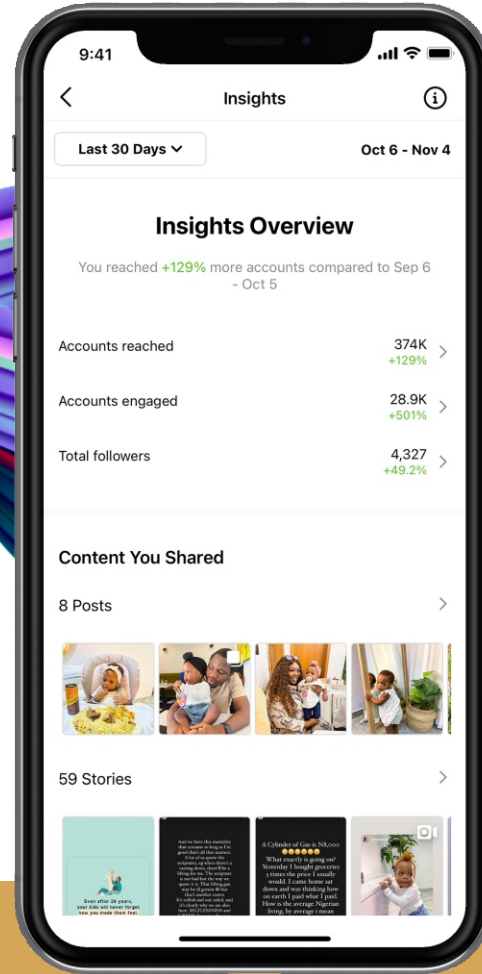

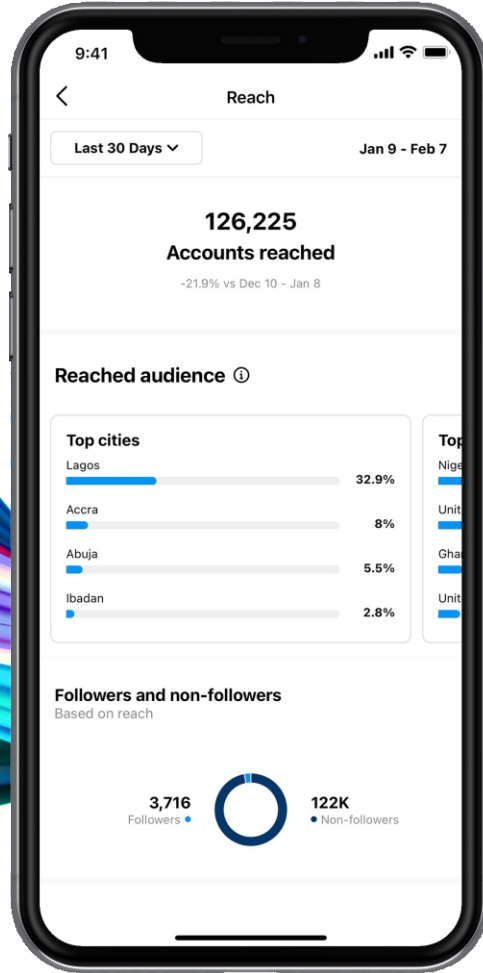

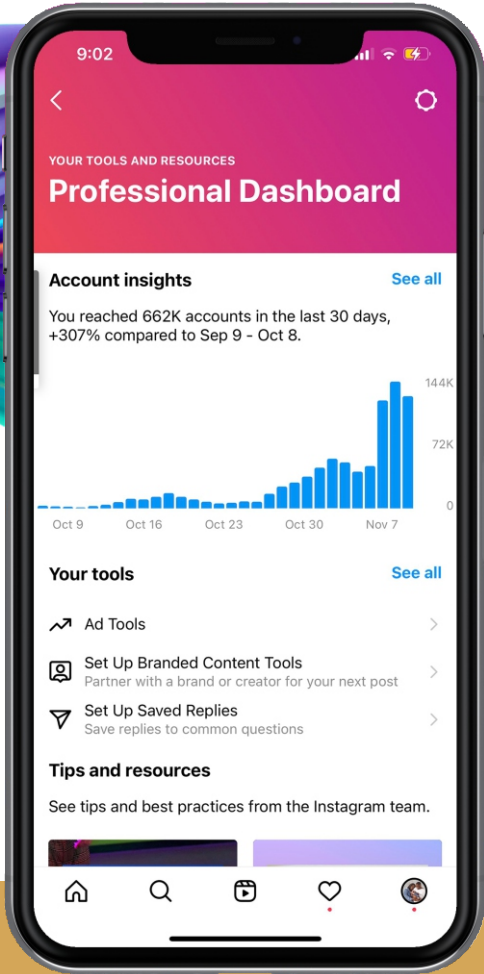

Through humour and vulnerability, I have been able to grow an organic following of moms, young women and families who are interested in what I have to say.

My stats show that I can offer brands great visibility beyond my following. My reach far surpasses my growing community as many of my reels have gone viral with two of my videos reaching over 1 Million views each and one of my videos reaching over 5 Million views.

I am passionate about creating wholesome, lighthearted content that not only offers value to the viewer but puts a smile on their face. In my short time of being a content creator, brand influencer, I have worked with brands like moobi baby, bembem diapers, august secrets, fashion strings and international brands like sanctuary spa, primark and so many more.
